This exceptional property brings an unprecedented concept of luxury in the Costa Del Sol. Situated in Manilva with easy access, between Gibraltar and Marbella this chic venue, influenced throughout by original, contemporary design and exceptional quality, creates the most breathtaking property. Offering total privacy and beautiful panoramic sea views uninterrupted scenery of the coast as far as Marbella and the Moroccan Atlas Mountains. It boasts a large outdoor terrace overlooking a beautifully landscaped area home to a spectacular infinity pool, which is surrounded by stylish yet comfortable loungers and oversized beds and also exhibits an admirable hot tub and pool bar. The property is composed of four separate houses. A small Guesthouse staff house is situated at the entrance to the property with one bedroom, bathroom, living room and kitchen. The main residence has an open plan kitchen, living dining room with fireplace. Sliding French doors lead you from the living area out onto an expansive terrace, perfect for alfresco dining, with panoramic sea views and the surrounding area. The magnificent master bedroom comes complete with a private terrace, majestic en-suite bathroom featuring a large tub and a separate shower and a private living room. The further three bedrooms are designed to the same exceptional quality and each has its own beautifully designed bathrooms. The two guest residences feature lovely upscale décor, lending an air of sophisticated elegance. The open-plan kitchen contains high-quality appliances and leads to a beautifully appointed living area. This boasts large glass picture windows showing the breath-taking views and allowing a lot of natural light to come through. The two stunningly furnished bedrooms each have their own private bathrooms with showers and one of the bedrooms leads into a charmingly furnished dressing room. The property is fully air-conditioned (also features ceiling fans) and is fully alarmed. A spectacular residence perfect for entertaining friends.
